Use this rubric to guide your infographic design / presentation. Submit it when you share your infographic.

Information Presentation Total points: _____ / 40	Strong Evidence 4 points	Inconsistent Evidence 2 points	No Evidence 0 points
I can create an infographic to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant (“So what?”) content.
I can introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information into broader categories; include formatting (e.g., headings) and graphics (e.g., charts, tables) to aiding comprehension. See http://anna.vc/post/112863438962/how-to-think-using-visual-analogies to select the best graphic.
I can develop the topic with relevant, well-chosen facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
I can apply cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
I can use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
I can use technology to produce and publish and present the relationships between information and ideas efficiently.
I can use design ideas of color and space to present information in the most effective way.
I can produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
I can follow conventions of capitalization and punctuation.
I can include a “Works Cited” section following the MLA standard format (Citation title/author/date Order, Citations in ABC order, Hanging Indentations) for citation. Add any picture citations you are borrowing!
